Amberson On Committee To Back Fair Gas Tax

CORSICANA — Organization of the Committee for a Fair Pipeline Gas Tax was announced today by County Judge Jim Sewell of Corsicana, as chairman of the committee. Among the members of the original committee is Jim Amberson.

"The purpose of this committee is to conduct an educational campaign on the fairness of a tax on pipeline gas as a means of solving the state government's financial problems and providing necessary services which the people of Texas are demanding," Sewell declared.

"Two-thirds of the natural gas going into transmission lines today is being shipped out of Texas to provide fuel for out-of-state homes, stores and industries. Two-thirds of a fair pipeline gas tax would be paid by people living outside of Texas."

"The committee urges the people of Texas to contact the members of the Legislature and the Governor to let them know their wishes with regard to a pipeline gas tax to finance better highways, better city streets, better education and better water conservation. These needs can be met by passage of one of the pipeline gas tax bills now in the Legislature."

Address your letters to committee headquarters, Jim Sewell, P. O. Box 1024, Corsicana.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PUTS NICKLE IN METER FOR VISITORS

Two ladies from North Carolina came to Hondo again. Chamber of Commerce, Hondo, Texas.

The idea was that most people would appreciate the chance to have someone drop a nickel in the meter for them when they were delayed and accidentally over-parked. The policeman could issue a ticket, which would cost 25c or $1, but in this way, the person who over-parked would save the penalty.

The ladies from North Carolina said they were going to take copies of the envelope back home with them so their Chamber could adopt the same idea. It costs them $3 when they overpark in their home town.

The Chamber also has a supply of 1953 Texas highway maps for free distribution.

Southwestern Bell Plans Big Expansion Program For Medina

More farmers now have rural telephone service in the Hondo trade area than at any time in history, according to C. C. Bradshaw, district manager for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. A total of 86 farmers in the Hondo area are now enjoying rural dial telephone service as a result of the telephone company's steady progress in its postwar rural program to bring dependable, all-weather service to farmers. At the end of World War II the company had no telephones in operation in rural areas around Hondo, Bradshaw said.

"The increase in farm telephones has brought not only better service to farmers but increased benefits to every telephone user in Hondo since more rural telephones mean a larger calling area open to each subscriber," the local manager said. "In addition, it increases business for Hondo merchants by broadening their trade area."

In the 26 towns comprising the company's Uvalde district, in rural telephones connected by the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., jumped from 65 at the end of World War II to 2,560 in 1950. By the end of last year, there were 4,101 subscribers with rural telephone service—an increase of 1,541 in only two years, Bradshaw said.

"Expansion is again the keynote of the rural telephone activity, in our territory this year," he said. The program for the company's Southwest Texas Division is 2,350 new farm telephones for 1953, and it is expected that some portion of this work will be done in the Uvalde district.

The official added that hundreds of rural residents around the towns of the district may also get new service as a result of the program to fill lines where facilities are already available or where a small amount of construction on existing facilities would provide good service to more farmers.

The Southwestern Company's rural program goal is to bring service to as many farmers as possible. In the Southwest Texas Division, of which the Uvalde district is a part, there are more than five times as many farm telephones now connected as the company had in service in 1945. Now, 23,000 farmers have Bell rural service, whereas there were only 4,094 at the end of World War II, the local manager stated.

Southwestern Bell's rural construction projects are bringing to the farmer the most modern, dependable service—equal to that of city subscribers, Bradshaw noted.

"The telephone is rapidly eliminating the traditional isolation of farm life," he said. "With the help of fast, economical construction methods and new transmission techniques, rural telephone facilities can be put in three times faster than ever before. Rural localities have been linked by literally tens of thousands of miles of new pole lines, by modern central office buildings, and by the most up-to-date switchboards. In 1952 alone, in the company's Southwest Texas division more than 14,000 poles were placed and 5,539 miles of wire, enough to stretch from San Antonio to Seattle two and one-half times, were strung," Bradshaw said.

The rural program provides for telephone lines and equipment built, installed and maintained by the company. The lines are two-wire, and modern telephone instruments are installed. Special high-strength steel wire is used to permit longer spans between poles; not more than eight parties are connected on any line.

Bradshaw said that the new service is gradually doing away with farmer-owned telephone lines. "As the company's rural program moves forward, the number of farmer-owned service lines is diminishing, supplanted by our modern, high-strength steel wire line construction which gives more dependable service," the local manager said.

The furnishing of a rural telephone service is a long and costly undertaking, Bradshaw said. Before any construction is begun, telephone men must survey typical sections and find out what are the telephone needs of different kinds of rural areas. They learn, for example, how many farms are using existing facilities how many could be reached over power lines, and now many will need new facilities. In addition, they consult with rural people to make sure current plans reflect their needs. In many projects the Southwestern Company works with its independent neighbor telephone companies and co-operates with the Rural Electrification Administration to help meet farmer telephone needs in other areas.

WILDLIFE IN AMERICA

The naturalist Ernest Thompson Seton in his book, "Lives of the Hunted," wrote a delightful story on the kangaroo rat. It may have conditioned many people in their subsequent understanding of this animal. Unfortunately it unjustly conditions people to believe that kangaroo rats can suffer at the hands of such a harmless creature as a spotted salamander. Somehow as the years go by and we have experiences both with kangaroo rats and with spotted salamanders, we come to believe that we should depend to a considerable extent on what we see for ourselves.

If you have had the opportunity of keeping some of these delightful animals in captivity for some time, you come to feel that somehow the name "rat" should not be applied to the kangaroo rat. A rat is a despicable critter, and it is difficult to apply that term to this animal of our Southwest desert lands.

The kangaroo rat comes in a variety of species. In fact there are approximately a hundred kinds and in suitable territory there may be a population as high as 1,000 animals to the square mile. Because of the different kinds it is difficult to limit the territory occupied, but they seek hot, dry lands where coolness may be reached by burrowing a short distance underground. Some species are to be found in damp lands and some in forested areas but usually the ground is of a loose type, such as sand or clay, in which excavating is relatively easy.

One of the commoner kangaroo rats has a length of 13 inches of which 7½ inches is tail. They have long hind legs and the hind feet with their four toes may be two inches long. The eyes are large and amazingly beautiful as is so often the case with nocturnal animals. They have conspicous long whiskers and capacious, external, fur-lined cheek pouches in which they can pack food that they carry underground for storage or consumption. Kangaroo rats do not normally drink water but may get their supply from their food.

A kangaroo rat may make an 8-foot leap and this is necessary for an animal that roams in the open. The animals do not hibernate or migrate and must keep active the year round. The larger bannertails store food regularly but this is not the practice with the smaller species.

A nest den about 8 by 10 by 5 inches is built some 3 feet underground and lined with fine plant material. It is kept free of dung and waste food and there the two to four young of a litter are born. The rats are social but the families live in separate tunnels. However, if the animals are confined in a cage they will fight to the death and, while one may survive out of a group, even the survivor may become so wounded in the process of proving his superiority that he too does not live out his normal life span.

Kangaroo rats serve as food for coyotes which might otherwise prey on domestic animals. They have an interesting series of night songs which are intriguing to the camper who stops in their midst.

The National Wildlife Federation is interested in an understanding of the true role of these animals in the general economy of nature. Notes based on careful observation of young, of enemies and of food are always welcome.

And they say, how doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High?
—(Psalm LXXIII, 11.)

Sometimes, in our wilfulness, our selfishness, our self-centeredness, we may feel that we can "go it alone"—especially if the going happens to be good at the moment. But just let danger or tragedy confront us, and then we realize—often too late—that without God and His mercy and His strength we are pitifully weak and helpless. God is omniscient—He knows the beginning and the end of all our plans; His will shall be done.

Delicate Look For Young Spring Brides

With the growing trend to younger brides, the new Spring bridal fashions put new emphasis on the youthful look, carried out in delicate sheers, tulle, lace and silk.

Taking into consideration the young budget as well, many of the newest styles embody the "deb gown" idea. This convertible fashion often becomes formal separates for the bridesmaid, for after-the-wedding wear, or the formal evening gown for the bride, covered up with traditional sleeves and a conservative décolletage that are removable after the ceremony.

Brides may also wear waltz or full-length strapless gowns, with a cut-away lace coat for the wedding. The waltz length, 39 inches from waistline to hem, or ballerina skirts 35 inches long, have become very popular with younger brides and their attendants, and are shown extensively for this Spring.

Sheer are most popular, in nylon tulle, embroidered cotton organdie, laces, silk organdies, chiffons and dotted Swiss.

Satin, alone or with delicate touches of lace or embroidery, stars in traditional ceremonies, and is usually seen in full length gowns.

Hybrid Corn Seed Size Unimportant

That many Texas farmers could profitably take another look at their hybrid seed corn buying habits, is the opinion of Lee C. Coffey, associate agronomist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

He says the demand for the "large flat" kernels of hybrid seed corn could and probably will result in a shortage of this type of seed for late planters. He points out that research and field planting trials show no special advantage for these seed over the other shapes and sizes of quality planting seed. It is a fact, he says, that under equal conditions, the plants, stands and the yield and quality of hybrid corn produced from large round or medium sized flat or round seed is just as good as from the large flat planting seed. And he adds, the larger seed cost more money.

The lower cost results from a simple fact. There are just more of the smaller seed in a bushel of seed corn and will thus plant more rows of corn. A bushel of uniformly graded medium flat grain Texas hybrid seed corn will average planting about 40 per-

THE IMPORTANCE OF WOMEN VOTING STRESSED AT PTA

Mrs. H. G. Stinnett, State President of the Congress of PTA, stressed the importance of women voting, and knowing what they were voting for, at the Fifth District Spring Conference held in Uvalde on March 25th.

In addition to the necessity of women taking a leading part in elections, the Congress adopted a pro-fluoridation program which will mean fewer decayed teeth for children. Twelve cities are already conducting carefully controlled programs of water treatment against insidious tooth decay. Future children of any community where water is treated in the proper ration will be better off than children in other communities whose leaders have shorter vision.

Long years of study show that children who use fluoride-treated water have 60 to 65 percent fewer decayed teeth than children who are denied the benefits of such water.

During the Spring Conference, workshops were conducted in the afternoon for the different officers and their work.

The following from Hondo High School PTA attended the conference: Mesdames Joe Krenmueller, Herman Reus, Arnold Lindeburg, Bruno Schweers, Mesdames Marvin Schweers, V. V. Wiemers, C. T. Woods, Clyde Jackson, Ralph Stiegler and S. D. Wells represented the Hondo Elementary PTA.

Mrs. Earl W. Howard, the former Evelyn Barnes of Hondo, led the group singing.

GARDENS

Use a starter solution to give your tomatoes, pepper plants and other plants a good start. A starter solution may be made by mixing about two tablespoons of 5-10-5 or 8-8-8 commercial fertilizer in a gallon of water. Mix up the starter solution the day before you plan to transplant so the fertilizer will have time to dissolve and go into solution. Apply about a pint of solution per tomato plant, or other plant being transplanted.

BROILING STEAKS

Broiling is an ideal method for cooking tender beefsteaks. For home broiling you need a steak one to two inches thick. Slash the fat at the edges of the meat to prevent its curling as it cooks, and preheat the broiler and grease the broiler rack lightly to keep meat from sticking. Broil the steak until the top side is browned to your liking, season, and then turn on the other side. Broil a one-inch steak about 10 minutes if you want it rare, 5 minutes for each side; if you want it medium, about fifteen minutes; well done, about 20 to 25.

For a steak one and a half inches thick, about 15 minutes for rare, 20 minutes for medium, and 25 to 30 minutes for well done. Broil a two-inch steak 25 minutes if you want it rare, 35 for medium and 45 to 50 minutes for well done.

HOUSEWORK CAN KEEP YOU YOUNG

If ever there was a time when homemakers need a lift about the job of housework, it is during the spring when there are winter clothes to be sorted and stored, all the corners need to be cleaned, the windows washed and curtains laundered. One author says "More pep, energy and enthusiasm can be hers if she uses new labor-saving and labor sharing ideas and equipment, and if she has a happy, positive attitude toward her job." She suggests a "Whistle-while-you-work" attitude for no matter how good the plan or tools, one eventually has to get down to work. "There are three things that help a woman to be a success in any profession: good appearance, good health, and the ability to work easily and well." There are a few jobs more difficult than a homemaker's, but no job in the world reaps such a rich reward—that of having a happy, contented family. "Frame of mind helps to determine a person's age. If the Homemaker is bored with a job and a martyr to the cause, she feels old. If she is interested, happy and contented, she feels young, and look it, too.

NATALIA NEWS

Natalia Baptists Hold Homecoming

As a part of the program for the Natalia Baptist Church homecoming, E. H. Whittington presented the following history of the church.

On or about February 15, 1940 Evangelist Van Roy pitched his tent towards Natalia. About this time or shortly before, another minister of the gospel, Rev. Roy Winkler of Cape Gerado, Missouri also came our way. These two labored together in a six weeks revival meeting which was a big success.

During the six weeks the two ministers made a religious survey of this territory, and were given much encouragement toward their objective, that of organizing a Baptist Church in Natalia. And so it came about, on a cold rainy Easter morning, March 24, 1940, the Church was organized. Only 12 people came into the membership of the church at the morning service, but the invitation was held over until the evening service, with the understanding that all who affiliated themselves with the church during the day's services would be classed as Charter Members.

The following joined during the two services: Kenneth Cines, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Crawford and Bernice; Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Culver, Mrs. Mollie Crawford, Miss Arvilla Crawford, N. W. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Clark, Fifer, Mrs. John Garrett, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Grisham and Leon, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Heiser, Geo. W. Howard, Mrs. A. B. King, Mrs. Ellis Lee, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McDaniel, Mrs. C. A. Moore Mrs. Lloyd Putnam, Marjory Putnam, Lloydene Putnam.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Stanfield, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Suggs, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Stidham, Mrs. W. M. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Spivey, Mrs. M. E. Spivey, Lloyd E. Whittington, Mrs. Opal Langford, Jean Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Whitwell, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Yarbrough, Mamie Yarbrough, and Buddy Yarbrough.

Rev. Roy Winkler was chosen as first pastor and served until October, 1941.

During this period of about 18 months he baptized 104 and received by letter 105, a record that no other pastor has succeeded in reaching.

The first major problem that confronted the new church was a place of worship. This was temporarily solved by accepting an offer by the Medina Irrigated Farms to use the warehouse in back of the Old Club House where services were held until a church building could be erected. This was done during the month of April and the new building was dedicated on Sunday, May 4, 1940. This was a one room shingle roof building built at an overall cost of $745.00 by A. B. King. He furnished materials and did a lot of work but most of the labor was volunteered, with Mr. King supervising. One lot for this building was given by Williams Insurance Agency, and one was purchased by the church at a cost of $25. This building served for all purposes until June or July of 1946 when the educational building was added, but was not completed until later.

In January 1948 the parsonage was built. Brother L. D. Pugh served as building supervisor. At present the overall value of the church property is $18,500 with an overall indebtedness of less than $2,000.

Those who have served as Sunday School superintendents include Reginold Lindsey, Rufas Hogue, Jim Spivey, A. G. Grisham, Henry Mullins and Andy Simmons.

Rio Medina Tigers Nip LaCoste Athletics 5 to 4

The Rio Medina Tigers pushed home two scores in the top of the eighth to edge out the LaCoste Athletics 5-4 in a contest played on the Athletics' new diamond at LaCoste Sunday afternoon. A huge crowd turned out for the game despite unfavorable winds, as the entire proceeds went into the James Geiger Hospital Fund.

The LaCoste nine took the lead in the bottom of the third when a two-run rally gave them a 3-1 edge on the Tigers. They carried this narrow margin into the sixth frame, whence the Tigers began narrowing the gap. The death dealing blow came in the eighth however, when the Athletic in-

So The People May Know County Financial Reports

The clerk of each county must publish annually a financial report showing how much money has been spent out of each of the county's funds and the balance in each fund. It must reveal the county's indebtedness and give other details, outlined by state law as follows:

"Art. 1609. County Finances—publication of financial report of county by clerk.

"Immediately after the first regular term of said court in each year said clerk shall publish once in some weekly newspaper published in his county, or if there be no paper published herein, then by posting four copies of such exhibit, one in each commissioners precinct, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, the other three at public places in such precincts, an exhibit showing the aggregate amount paid out of each fund for the four preceding quarters, and the balance to the credit or debit of each fund; also the amount of indebtedness of said county, with their respective dates of accrual, and to whom and for what due; also he amount to the debit or credit of each officer or other persons with whom an account is kept. The cost for publishing the same shall be paid by order of said court out of the general fund of the county."

Another provision of the law is that the county treasurer must publish a financial report after it has been inspected by the commissioners. The law says:

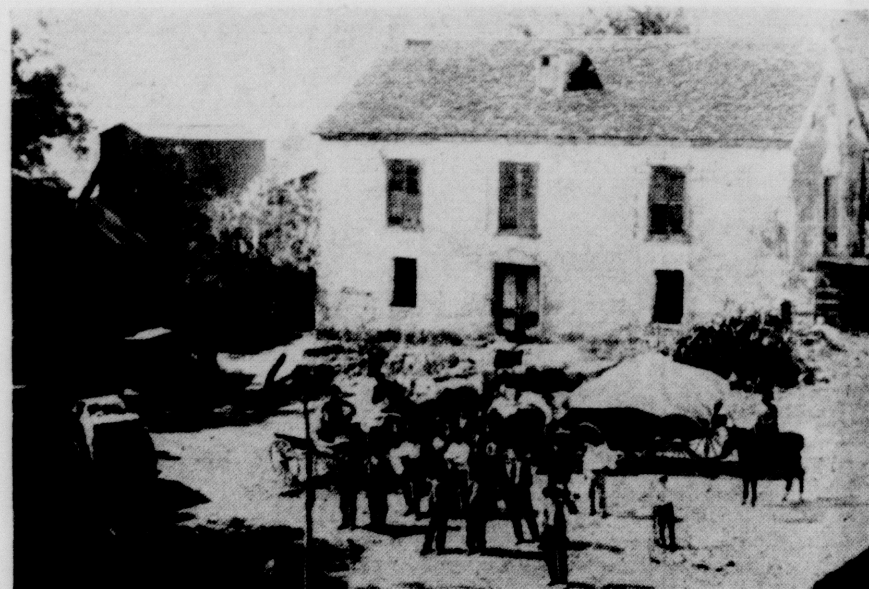

"Art. 1636. County finances—publication of notice of county treasurer's reports after inspection by the commissioners' court.

"... Prior to the adjournment of each regular term of the court, the county judge and each commissioner shall make affidavit that the requirements of this article have been in all things fully complied with by them at said term of said court, and that the cash and other assets mentioned in said county treasurer's quarterly report made by said treasurer to said court, and held by him for the county, have been fully inspected and counted by them giving the amount of said money and other assets in his hands. Such affidavits shall be filed with the county clerk and recorded in the minutes of said court the term at which the same were filed; and the same shall be published in some newspaper published in the county if there be a newspaper published in the county, for one time."

"The Story of Castroville" Pictures of Castroville

Uvalde Wins Over Owls

The Hondo Owls journeyed to Uvalde Tuesday evening, where they were defeated by the Uvalde boys 6-3. Hitting power for the Owls seemed to be lacking as the local boys collected only three hits. Jack Henderson started for Uvalde, but was relieved by Jacopette after two runs had been scored and the bases were loaded. The next batter up, Morin, hit into a double play, to end the Owls threat.

Elroy Lindeburg proved to be the losing pitcher, as four of the six runs were charged to him. He was relieved in the third by Willie Alderete who, in turn, was relieved by Baker, who finished up. The other two runs were charged to Alderete. The Owls got two runners on in the last frame but Lindeburg whiffed the breeze to end the game.

Rain Lifts Hopes For Game, Fish

Rainfall bringing moisture to bone dry parts of Texas has stimulated hopes for the Animal Kingdom in the entire state, according to the Executive Secretary of the Game and Fish Commission.

He said the precipitation came at a crucial time for wildlife since species such as quail and wild turkey are readying for the spring reproduction while big game, particularly fawn-carrying does, now are seeking vital green nourishment after changing over from the mast crop winter feed.

Equally important, added the Executive Secretary, fish life is at important seasonal stage. The rain reinvigorates lakes and streams and restores ponds and tanks which have been dry for months.

The moisture is expected to be

HONDO HIGH SCHOOL BAND TO HAVE OPEN HOUSE APRIL 7

An open house set for Tuesday evening, April 7, 1953, from seven until nine o'clock will give the people of Hondo their first look at the new home of the Hondo High School Band.

The new building which is located just southeast of the high school provides a large rehearsal room, and office, uniform and instrument storage rooms, two small practice rooms, and rest rooms. With all of these facilities, this modern structure is considered to be one of the very finest band buildings in this area, and it will fill the critical need that has been felt in the schools since the band became an active performing organization last year.

Receiving committee for the occasion will be M. L. Mechler, Mrs. M. F. Schweers, Mrs. L. A. McDaniel, Mrs. F. H. Tate, E. M. Nester, Eugene Moos, and J. P. Nixon. These are the officers, finance committee, and concessions committee of the Band Boosters Club.

Band parents and everyone interested are cordially invited to attend this occasion.

Correction

We advertised a dress for Mary Rene's. Copy under the dress read "Prelin," and it should have been Irelin, which is a combination of Irish and linen. What with all the new fabrics, we got confused.

Marguerite Murrill poses with her latest Easter floral arrangement in gay spring colors of green, orchid, yellow, and purple bunnies, eggs, and baskets set a miniature fairyland. Go by today and order your centerpiece or corsage.

Bunnies, Baskets & Flowers To Decorate Your Home At Hondo's Flower Shop

Looks like the Easter bunny has visited Marguerite Murrill's Flower Shop a little early, but the truth is Mrs. Murrill has been helping out Mr. Hopalong for a couple of weeks now preparing delicious arrangements and centerpieces to brighten your home this Easter season.
Styrofoam bunnies, baskets, and carts are chucked full of Shasta daisies, blue iris, carnations, and many more to join the "Easter Parade". Using liquid dye (her preference due to dust dye coming off on clothes) she has fashioned styrofoam cut-outs in gay Easter colors.
A Perky little pink bunny pulling a bright yellow cart filled with colored Easter eggs and your favorite flowers added to your home decorations for Easter will be the center of attention.
Always adding to her floral background, Mrs. Murrill plans to attend the Cliff Mann Colorado School of Floral Design in Denver this summer. Concentrating on modern styles in weddings and latest fashions in brides' bouquets and arrangements as cascades, muffs, fans, cresents, hats, and hair effects will be discussed and studied.

New ideas for tapers, lighters, center pieces, and presentation bouquets will be also included in the program.
Mrs. Murrill is president of Hondo's Business and Professional Women's Club and treasurer of Wesleyan Service Guild, an association of working women in the Methodist Church. Her phone is

HOUSEHOLD WORKERS SOCIAL SECURITY TAX EXPLAINED

April 30th is the deadline on which social security payments for household workers for the first quarter of 1953 are due at the office of your Collector of Internal Revenue.

The federal law bringing household workers under the old-age and survivors insurance system went into effect January 1, 1951. However, lawyers say that many persons who employ help in their homes are still in the dark about requirements of the law.

Here are some provisions every one should know. Household workers covered by the law include maids, laundresses, housekeepers, cooks, nursemaids, gardeners, handymen, valets, footmen, grooms, chauffeurs of privately owned cars, practical nurses, and others.

Whether or not a household worker is included in the law depends on how many days she works and how much money she is paid. If the person works 24 days and earns $50 during any one of the three month periods into which the calendar year has been divided, a tax report must be filed and payment made.

Only cash wages are considered, which includes bus fare if paid in cash, but does not include bus tokens, clothing, room and board, or other noncash items furnished the employee. A domestic worker does not have to put in a full day to count on the 24 day rule--any portion of the day worked counts as a full day.

The rule is different for domestic workers on farms operated for profit. In such cases the domestic is considered a farm worker and is covered only if he or she meets the test for farm labor.

The tax in all amounts to 3 per cent of the cash wages paid. You, as an employer, must deduct 1 1/2 per cent from your household worker's cash wages if the person meets the 24 day, fifty dollar test. You then include another 1 1/2 per cent which is the employer's contribution. After the close of each specified three-month period you should send the tax, with a report of the wages paid, to the Collector of Internal Revenue.

These three-month periods, or quarters, end on March 31st, June 30th, September 30th and December 31st. Reports and payments are due by the last day of the month following the close of each quarter. During any quarterly period that a household worker does not work 24 days or earn $50, the employer need not be concerned. You need not consider the work your employee performs for any other employer.

The Bureau of Internal Revenue has a special household report form, printed on the back of a return envelope, which can be obtained from your Collector upon request. Just ask for Form 942.

(This column, based on Texas law, is written to inform--not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without the aid of an attorney who knows the facts, because the facts may change the application of the law.)

Here In HONDO

If Texans don't watch out blue bonnets will someday be rare around here. It used to be you could just drive any place and see fields of our State flower. One of the prettiest patches we've seen is Dorothy and Frank Vance's in their back yard. Take a look before they're all gone.

A garden worth getting the car out to drive by and see is Mrs. Louis Stieglers'. It's a mass of color.

When you're driving around in your car, it's worth going by the home of the Milton Batots to see the beautiful climbing red roses. Mrs. Batot has them planted on both the West and North sides of her home.

Mrs. Bob Barnhart of Austin was a house guest of Mrs. Martin, and visited many friends during the week.

M&M Amos Harlee were visiting in Boerne over the weekend. M&M J. V. Blinka visited in SA Sunday.

M&M Walter Balzen and Mrs. Ida Bohlen were visiting Sgt. and Mrs. R. H. Phaneuf in Lake Charles, La., last weekend. Mrs. Phaneuf returned home with them for a week's visit.

M&M W. H. Case of SA visited M&M Roy Pfeil this past weekend.

Mary Agnes Hubbard, Sally Brucks and Mary Ruth Cameron attended the Bluebonnet Dinner given by the Business and Professional Women of Beeville last Thursday night.

thing within easy reach? Work in a comfortable position? Sit when you can and make both hands work?

These questions were discussed by Mrs. Melvin Derry and Mrs.

ville HD Club members, when it met for a member meeting in the home of Mrs. Walter J. Etter, ry and Mrs. Adams told members by draining dishes dry, sprinkling clothes on the line, folding them from the line for ironing and putting them away, and sitting down when doing part of your work, a housewife wasn't lazy, for it was saving her time and energy.

Club members were asked by the president to make and model dresses for the HD and 4-H Style Show which is to be held in Devine on April 13th.

by the club members, the date will be announced later.

Canty, Mrs. Norma Green, Mrs.
Jane Nolan, Mrs. Glenna West,

Derry, Mrs. G. W. McFadden and the hostess.

in the home of Mrs. Wendell Griggs on April 16, at 2:30 P. M.

Natalia High School
To Celebrate Hobo Day

Natalia High School will have its annual hobo day this year on April 1, April Fool's Day.

Students and faculty members choosing to do so will come to school dressed as hobos, or will be given time to change into hobo clothes at school. A king and queen will be chosen from the first through sixth grade group, also from the group from seventh through twelfth grades.

The hobos will parade through downtown Natalia between 11:30 and 12:00 noon, then return to school to eat lunch together out in the open just as many other regular hobos do. Classes will meet on regular schedule until 2 P. M. in the afternoon, then school will be dismissed for the day.

The above schedule was worked out by the high school and elementary student councils meeting together. One change will be noted this year. The parade will be complete with drums and bugles, but the hobos will not be begging as in the past. The student council announced that all parents are welcome to come to the parade and have fun.

Hobo Day was instituted several years ago in an effort to eliminate "Hooky Playing" on April Fool's Day and to enable students to "Let off steam," and to foster a better relationship between students and faculty members. It has been an annual event every since its inception, and students at Natalia look forward to its coming each year.

Mrs. Helen Reynolds, home-making teacher at Natalia High for the past four years, has tendered her resignation effective at the close of the present school term, according to Supt. M. B. Tilley.

Otto Naegelin Locates All Old Postoffices For Castroville Pilgrimage

Postmaster Otto Naegelin is doing his share of research for the Castroville Pilgrimage. He has located all the buildings that have served as postoffices since 1867. The buildings and dates of occupancy were as follows: the Vance House (Landmark Inn) 1867-1878; the Klappenbach building (Castroville Clinic and Hospital) 1878-1885; back again to the Vance House, 1885-1888; the Carle house and store (Mrs. Sebastian Marty) 1888-1889; then back to the Klappenbach building until 1894; the Fous building 1894-98; the Pengeot house (across the street from the Tarde hotel) 1898-1914; in 1914 a special building was erected for the purpose, now the Aaron Mangold residence, and was used until 1943.

Mrs. Hartley Howard, president elect of the Devine PTA, Mrs. L. C. Martin, vice-president of the 5th district, and Miss Ruth Lawler attended the annual PTA Spring Conference of the 5th District held in Uvalde last week. ## Dr. Dallal Appointed Chairman Of Medina County Posture Week

Dr. F. J. Dallal of Castroville was advised of his appointment as Correct Posture Week Chairman for Medina County, with Dr. R. H. Harvey of Devine and Dr. E. B. Vincent of Hondo as advisors.

The appointment was made by Dr. Hugh Warren of San Antonio, the District Posture Week Chairman for 10th District of the Texas Chiropractic Association.

These cities are among the 150 in the State that will be observing Correct Posture Week in Texas May 1-7. Dr. Dallal said. Posture Week is being sponsored in the State for the third straight year by the Chiropractic Public Health Committee of Texas.

Dr. Dallal said the week was being sponsored by the Chiropractors of Texas and the nation in order to emphasize the importance of good posture and good health.

"A high rate of postural distortions are caused by spinal distortions," Dr. Dallal said. "The postural defects often result in disease since they curtail the natural function of the nervous system of which the spine is the central part."

"Chiropractors are undertaking to educate the public of the importance of good posture and good health, because as back and spine specialists they know that nerves, muscles and vital organs all may suffer impairment of functions as a result of incorrect posture."

Dr. Dallal says for your health's sake please stand tall, sit tall, and sleep tall.

MRS. FASELER, BABS BATOT ATTEND FHA EXECUTIVE COUNCIL

Babs Batot, Area VII Vice-President, Annette Nixon, Dist. I Pianist, Andrea Mumme, Judy Breiten, and Mrs. Dora Mae Faseler, local chapter advisor, attended the meeting which was held for the purpose of installing new Area officers, choosing a stunt to be used as entertainment at the State Meet, and selecting a State Future Homemaker Officer Nominee.

The group of FHA'ers arrived in San Marcos at 1:00, Friday, in time to hear the Hondo Band members perform. They toured the campus and inspected the library and museum. The Area Executive Council, which Mrs. Faseler and Babs Batot attended, was held at the San Marcos High School at 7:00 P. M. The agenda included introducing the old and new area officers, selecting a stunt for the State Meet, selecting a State Nominee, and practice for the installation of officers to be held the next day. Refreshments were served by students in the San Marcos Homemaking Department. The following morning the installation of officers was held at the SWTSTC. State Degrees of Achievement were evaluated. Betty Jo DeMontel received her State Homemaker Degree at this meeting last year, and Babs Batot plans to submit her material for evaluation next spring.
